

ON BREEDING DEERHOUNDS

Collected Thoughts

by

KAY BARRET

A collection of views from current British Deerhound breeders about their ideas and ideals and how they go about planning a mating, how they choose a stud dog and which qualities are important, along with their views on health, line-breeding, nature v nurture, how they raise and choose puppies, along with general advice about breeding.

The book provides an insight into the character of breeders and their Deerhounds.

208 pages, 70 photographs.
